

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

SUNDAY APRIL 10, 1881

ISSUED EVERY MORNING.

(Monday Excepted.)

D. C. Ireland, Editor and Proprietor.
Astorian Building, Cass Street.

Terms of Subscription:

Served by Carrier, per week.....25 Cents
Sent by mail, four months.....$7.00
Sent by mail, one year.....9.00
Free of Postage to Subscribers.

Advertisements inserted by the year at the rate of $1.50 per square per month.
Transient advertising, by the day or week, fifty cents per square for each insertion.

The Weekly Astorian.

Is a mammoth sheet, exactly double the size of the Daily. It is just the paper for the free-lance, containing in addition to all the current news, choice miscellany, agricultural matter, market reports, etc. It is furnished to single subscribers at $2.00 per year in advance.

A limited number of small advertisements inserted at established rates.

THE CITY.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN will be sent by mail at 75 cents a month, free of postage. Readers who contemplate absence from the city can have the ASTORIAN follow them, DAILY or WEEKLY editions to any post-office without additional expense. Address may be changed as often as desired. Leave orders at the counting room.

The summer resorts about Astoria are busy preparing for an active season.

Several canneries will send out boats to-morrow evening. A few go out this evening.

The steam tug Tacoma, in this port yesterday from Puget-sound, is a very large, fine vessel.

Pikes' restaurant building at Ilwaco, just completed is twenty-two by forty feet in size, two stories high.

One of our boys, Thos. H. Crang, first officer of the Katata, piloted the tug Tacoma into port yesterday from Fort Canby.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Elbertson arrived in the city last evening, and are stopping at Judge Bowley's, on Court street.

The water-works at Ilwaco will be complete on the first of May. The pipes run 1750 feet from the fountain head, and furnish a fall of fifty feet.

Hanthorn & Co. are now ready to begin the work of constructing net racks to accommodate twenty boats at Ilwaco. Fishing will begin May first.

Mr. Charles Christie is now in charge of the Pendleton Oregonian. His cotemporary of the Tribune gives him a good send off. Charley is deserving.

Several of the Occident Packing company's boats will begin fishing to-night. Their establishment is now in running order and ready for the first catch.

Messrs. Hansen Brothers are now prepared for business at their new shop on Cass street for boat building and general work in the line of carpentering. See advertisement.

Miss Lizzie Norris has arrived and is ready to receive a limited number of pupils for tuition on the piano. Call at the Occident for a few days or on F. C. Norris, ASTORIAN Office.

Rev. H. K. Hines, editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, will preach and conduct the quarterly meeting services of the M. E. church in the Baptist church, to-day at 11 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Love Feast at 10 o'clock.

The statement yesterday that officer Joe Day got his man off the steamer was a prevarication—the man got Day. In other words, when the officer undertook to find the prisoner, he was compelled to endorse the writ non est inventus. The fellow had skipped.

If Sam Gray did lose the tips of three fingers from one of his hands, he has n't lost his grip. Whenever you want a saddle, or a harness, or a buggy cushion, remember that Sam has a shop in Astoria, and that his tugs are made as strong as the tugs of war alluded to by Howe, Dryden, et. al.

The law compelling fishing boats to carry lanterns is denounced in energetic terms by the fishermen. They claim that it is not at all beneficial and that many reasons exist why the law should not be enforced. If the parties interested will briefly state their grievances we will publish the communication.

The Puget sound tug Tacoma, came over to tow the ship Canada to New Tacoma, the home of her present owners. The tug "stopped" on Desdemona sands to scrape the barnacles off her bottom. Puget sound is an in-and sea, and barnacles cover the bottom of vessels over there with as much alacrity as the teredo bores down the wharves erected at those ports.

A Mother's Grief.

Would that we could satisfactorily answer the piercing words and pitiful implore of the writer of the following letter; but alas, none can tell more of the sorrowful story of the ill-fated Lupata than has been told. Thirteen bodies were all that came ashore, so far as any person can say, and these were in such condition as to be beyond recognition. Perhaps some readers of THE ASTORIAN may be able to contribute a word of comfort to that poor mother's heart; if so, we shall be glad to communicate it to her.

STOCKHOLM, March 8th, 1881.
EDITOR ASTORIAN:

Sir: Excuse my troubling you, unknown as I am, with a private affair, but as I know no other to apply to and it is of a very serious matter to me, I feel quite sure that you will forgive my boldness, and favor me with what knowledge you have in the matter. My stepson Carl Peterson sailed on board the English ship Lupata, which was wrecked off Tillamook rock 3d of January last. I heard of the wreck lately and wrote to the secretary of Lloyd's for information and he gave me what he knew, which, however, was very scanty, and further sent me a letter from the managing owner of the ship. From this I learnt the date of the wreck and that the whole crew were lost together with some other particulars, which, however, appear to have been gathered rather hastily. He told me moreover that he had part of this from your paper. As I, however, want to know more about my ill-fated son, and as you easily can imagine, and my poor wife, the boys mother, still more wants it, I have thought that you perhaps would be kind and give me the particulars about this unhappy accident you cannot but possess. I, therefore, beg that you kindly would tell me all that you know about the wreck, the situation of the place and whether all the bodies—there were twenty-three on board—have been found. My stepson was twenty-four years old, with oval face, large nose and of a goodly shape. For my probably had American and for my impatience, I once more beg your excuse. In hope of an answer from you, I sign with greatest respect, your most humble servant.

P. R. CROSBY, JR.,
Chief of Detectives, Stockholm, Sweden.

How to Stop a Newspaper.

An eastern exchange says: You have an undoubted right to stop a newspaper when you feel so disposed, upon payment of all arrears. Do not hesitate to do so on account of "tenderness of feeling" for the editor. Don't you suppose he would stop buying sugar of you, or meat, clothing, dry goods, etc., if he thought he was not getting his money's worth, and why should you not exercise the same privilege with regard to him? And when you discontinue a paper, do so manfully. Don't be so spiteful as to throw it back to the post-master with a contemptuous "I don't want it any longer" and have "refused" written on the margin, and have the paper returned. No gentleman ever stopped it in that way, no matter if his head was covered with gray hairs that should be honorable, if you do not wish to longer receive a newspaper, write a note to the editor like a man, saying so—and be sure that the arrears are paid. That is the way to stop a newspaper.

The barkentine North Bend will come down to load at Knappton to-morrow for San Francisco.

The Scottish Fairy cleared for Liverpool yesterday carrying 12,253 barrels of flour, and 600 cases of salmon, valued at $53,135.

The shipments of flour in the cargo of the Scottish Fairy are divided up between four mills. Junction, Turner's, Portland and Salem. The salmon is shipped by Hagood and company.

Rev. H. K. Hines, editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, paid us a pleasant call yesterday. He will officiate to-day at the Methodist church services, and returns to Portland to-morrow.

Our thanks are tendered to Hon. Levi P. Morton, member of congress from New York; Hon. L. F. Grover, Hon. Jas. H. Slater, senators from Oregon, Hon. John Whiteaker, late member from Oregon, and to the live delegate from Washington territory, Hon. T. H. Brents, for congressional favors duly received, and truly appreciated.

The Rockland, Maine, Opinion, of the 25th ult., contains a lengthy notice of the death of Mr. Wm. G. Hawes, father of our fellow townsman Mr. E. R. Hawes. He was in his seventieth year at the time of his death. He was universally respected, and having filled many places of public trust was a representative man in his community for many years.

Since Pfunder has put his Blood Purifier on the market, people have stopped using all kinds of watery "Sarsaparillas" and "Whiskey Bitters." It gets away with them all.

Miss Nora Wilson has returned from Portland and is ready to begin giving music lessons.

The Shanghai Mercury of the 3d ult. hits Geo. F. Seward a back-handed liekin in the face. Reviewing the blunders in his book, it says: "The greatest blunder of all was his return to China. He should have resigned. The fact that the secretary of the treasury has refused to pay his salary while absent from his post attempting to defend himself, allowing pay only for the two months necessary for him to reach Washington, is indicative of the feeling against him—not only in that department but throughout the whole country. We regret that Mr. Seward should have written a book, so manifestly intended as a slap at Secretary Evarts and his superiors, and we repeat that we are disappointed. Instead of a fair and impartial handling of the subject, and a true statement of facts and figures, it is the labored brief of a paid attorney, the carping effusion of an egotistical dogmatist."

Lewiston is to have an oil factory. Mr. James Lovett, sent to gain information respecting the works, was denied admittance to the factory in Salem. It appears to us that the Salem manager did not act wisely in this respect. Mr. Lovett ascertained the capacity profits, etc., of the Salem factory, from reliable sources. Considering the vast slope of country embracing the territories of Washington, Idaho, Montana and Utah, we cannot see how the proposed factory can possibly interfere with the business of the only one now established in the whole Pacific Northwest. Mr. O. F. Dennis, founder, and for some years superintendent, of the oil mill at Salem, will proceed to Lewiston as soon as the building is erected. He is an experienced and energetic man, and with his name connected with the enterprise, success will be doubly assured.

Ammen's Cough Syrup never fails to cure if used in time and according to directions.

Fire-brick and fire-clay in lots to suit at M. C. Crosby's.

Salmon bellies, at retail, at Warren & Eaton's.

Go to M. C. Crosby's and get your lunch buckets, water kegs, barrels' bungs and boat stoves.

A nice lot of eastern oysters at Roscoses, arrived yesterday by steamer Columbia. Call around. You will find them first class.

The boat stoves made by M. C. Crosby, with fire-brick bottoms, are superior to all others in this market.

Lawyers' briefs printed in fine style, at THE ASTORIAN office.

P. Wilhelm, Ross saloon, opposite the Clarendon hotel, Portland, Oregon.

P. J. Goodman, on Chenamus street, has just received the latest and most fashionable style of gents and ladies boots, shoes, etc.

From numerous cases of dyspepsia and constipation, cured by the use of Feltow's Syrup of Hypophosphites, after every other known remedy has been used in vain, its efficacy in restoring functions of digestion and evacuation is manifest.

Everybody that has tried Ammen's Cough Syrup, continues its use; besides they tell their neighbors of it. We were in a drug store the other day and a customer asked for a bottle of Ammen's Cough Syrup, saying "I do not know anything about it myself, but my neighbor advised me to buy it for my cold, and tells me that the use of three bottles has entirely cured his cough of two years standing, in fact he says 'it is the best medicine in the world for coughs, colds and lung complaints,' and that a one-dollar bottle did him more good than all the prescriptions he had from the doctors."

For the best Beer in Astoria, call for the Columbia Brewery Beer, acknowledged to be superior to all others.

Max Wagner's San Francisco National brewery beer can't be beat.

Mr. John Rogers, of the Central Market, has made arrangements to keep all the finest fresh fish, etc., in their season.

Impure blood is shown by skin disorders, pimples, swellings, ulcers, etc., also by liver and kidney complaint, constipation, piles, indigestion, biliousness, despondency, lassitude, general weakness, and many other symptoms. Purify with King of the Blood. See advertisement.

For the Genuine J. H. Cutter old Bourbon, and the best of wines, liquors, and San Francisco beer call at the Gem opposite the bell tower, and see Campbell.

For a first-class oyster stew, fry, pan-roast or fancy roast, go to Roscoses on Main street, opposite N. Loeb's. Families supplied by the hundred or the sack, opened or in the shell.

Buy THE WEEKLY ASTORIAN in post-paid wrapper for ten cents, and send it to some friend in the east. It is better than a letter.

To Our City Patrons.

On and after Tuesday, the 12th inst., Mr. L. E. Selig will have full control of the city delivery in Astoria and upper Astoria of THE DAILY ASTORIAN. Subscriptions must be paid to him. Any neglect on the part of his carriers, if reported to Mr. Selig or the office of THE ASTORIAN, will be promptly attended to. Mr. Selig will also act as local reporter for the paper, and any favors extended to him will be duly appreciated and reciprocated.
D. C. Ireland, Publisher.
Astoria, April 7, 1881.

To Let.

Several furnished or unfurnished rooms at Mrs. Munson's lodging house. Also, a few persons can have board if required, either ladies or gentlemen.

Tin Plate, Pig Tin, Etc.

Geo. W. Hume keeps constantly on hand, and to arrive a full line of fish-cannons and canneries supplies, at prices which defy competition. Parties wishing groceries and those intending to run mess-houses should inspect goods and obtain large discount from regular price.

Central Hotel.

The Central hotel, near the steamship dock is now open for the reception of guests, where the well known caterer, Mr. Anton Beloh will always be found ready to wait on his patrons. He has had the above named house thoroughly refitted by Messrs. Pike and Stockton, our well known artists. Call and see him, as he has the finest brands of liquors and cigars to be had in the city.

Peruvian Bitters.

Chinchona Bitters.

The Count Cincincho was the Spanish Viceroy in Peru in 1635. The Countess, his wife, was prostrated by an intermittent fever, from which she was freed by the use of the native remedy, the Peruvian bark, or, as it was called in the language of the country, "Quinquina." Grateful for her recovery, on her return to Europe in 1637, she introduced the remedy in Spain, where it was known under various names, until Linnaeus called it Chinchona, in honor of the lady who had brought them to which was more precious than the gold of the Incas. To this day, after a lapse of two hundred and fifty years, science has given us nothing to take its place. It effectually cures a morbid appetite for stimulants, by restoring the natural tone of the stomach. It attacks excessive love of liquor as it does a fever, and destroys both alike. The powerful tonic virtue of the Chinchona is preserved in the Peruvian Bitters, which are as effective against malarial fever to-day as they were in the days of the old Spanish Viceroys. We guarantee the ingredients of these bitters to be absolutely pure, and of the best known quality. A trial will satisfy you that this is the best bitter in the world. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating," and we willingly abide this test. For sale by all druggists, grocers and liquor dealers. Order it.

AMUSEMENTS.

Hill's Varieties.

Geo. Hill, proprietor and manager, Fred Hill, stage manager, A. Ostrander, leader of orchestra, Geo. Lambert, leader of brass band. New first part with Nickerson as tambor, Staley as bones, and Gere interloper. Our new act, arranged and composed by Mr. Staley, called "Musical Pastimes," by Staley and Gere in the appearance of Mr. Staley Cook, the celebrated clog, jig, song and dance artist; engagement of Miss Lou Cook, female song and dance artist and jig dancer. Miss Mattie Morrison in selected songs. Nickerson will make you laugh with his funny fun. Staley in his specialties and Gere in Dutchisms. Mr. Hill is making active preparations for more amusements with which to please those of the public who are fond of popular amusements. New orchestral selections by our efficient orchestra, and new music by our excellent brass band on the grand stand at precisely 7 P. M. Curtain rises at exactly 8 P. M. Entrance on Benton street; entrance to private boxes, on Chenamus street.

Premature Loss of Hair.

Nowadays may be entirely prevented by the use of Burnett's Cocaine. It has been used in thousands of cases where the hair was coming out in handfuls, and has never failed to arrest its decay; it promotes a healthy and vigorous growth, and it is at the same time unrivaled as a soft and glossy dressing for the hair.

Burnett's flavoring extracts are the best, strongest and most healthful. Sold everywhere.

The Peruvian syrup has cured thousands who were suffering from dyspepsia, debility, liver complaint, boils, humors, female complaints, etc. Pamphlets free to any address. Seth W. Fowle & Sons, Boston.

Dr. John Welch, dentist, will be at the Occident hotel in this city about the 20th inst., and remain a short time for the practice of his profession.

Gray's wood yard is now fitted up on the wharf foot of Benton street, and prepared to deliver wood to any part of the city sawed to any length, and full measure.

John Rogers has just received at the Central market a large invoice of coal oil, assorted brands, and for sale at reduced rates. He also keeps a general assortment of groceries, liquors, tobacco, cigars, fruits and vegetables of best quality, which he offers at small profit for cash.

Frank Faber has removed into Dr. Kinsey's building on Water street. On the road to the steamer dock from down town, before breakfast, it will now be handy to drop in and get a cup of coffee.

Since the Chinese started to brew "cheap San Francisco beer" there is little or no demand for that article any more. Call for the Columbia brewery beer, if you want something good.

When you want a dish of nice Eastern Oysters done up a la mode, or a good steak, or a fragrant cup of coffee, call at Frank Faber's on the roadway, and he will accommodate you. Open at all hours.
